Has the honour in reply to state that any deficiency in the Minimum guaranteed
amount in any month has been
recouped by the duty
on excess sales in the previous or succeeding
months.

2. At the close of every year accounts
are made up and the Contractor is paid

paid at the rate of one anna per rupee on the excess collections.

3. The figures in the margin show that from 1881-82 the duty payable on the wines of Cyprus has not been less than the minimum guaranteed amount, the deficiency in one month being made up by the excess in another. The deficiency is only due to the wholesale shops in one month being furnished with a sufficient supply for two or more months from the distillery.

	1881-82	82-83	From April to the 31st Nov 1883
Gross Revenue	40315-7-10	34683-2-7	24263-2-3
Minimum guaranteed amount	26500-0-0	26500-0-0	17666-10-8
Variance being Excess Collection	13815-7-10	8183-2-7	6596-7-7

4. Should nevertheless instructions be received to recover the deficiency of 3 months, steps will be taken for the recovery of the same.
